that about $1100, was raised in Drayton Valley, 1961 quota set by Red Cross headquarters for Drayton Valley was $1500. The 1962 quota has also been set at $1500. Mr. Krueger reported that the overall response to the campaign had been very good. He cited the case of one company, Pembina Pipe Line, who matched their employees donations dollar for dollar. Treasurer Jim Cusack gave a financial report for the group. Reports were also given by Mrs. Hiltner, Violet Grove by Mr. Hiltner, Violet Grove by Mr. Charles Schindler, "baptized" by Mrs. Inez Ocker and Rocky Rapids by Mr. Earl Kelly.

The Blood Donor Clinic held last May had an objective of 300 donors; there were 236 donors during the clinic's stay in Drayton Valley. However, the October last fall clinic fell down considerably of its quota. With an objective of 300, there were only 236 donors for the fall clinic. Dates of the new Clinics that the Red Cross will hold in Drayton Valley this year were announced. They will come on Monday, May 7th and Monday September 16th.

Mr. Pickup Chairman of the Disaster Relief Committee gave a report on that department.

Officers for the coming year were nominated. President for the coming year is Roy Wright, 1st Vice president is Ar Playford 2nd vice president is Lorne Klapp, 3rd, W.P., is Mr. Jahke and 4th, V.P., is Mrs. McKillop Secretary will be Mrs. Betty Belliveau. Treasurer, Jim Cusack, Campaign Chairman is Lyn Krueger. Chairman of the Blood Donor Service board is Mrs. Jahke, and chairman of the Disaster Relief Committee is Mrs. Pickup.

Directors are to be chosen from three groups in Drayton Valley, the Lions, the Elks and The Rotary Club. Lodges will be represented on the board by Mr. Hiltner, Violet Grove by Mr. Hiltner, Violet Grove by Mr. Charles Schindler, "baptized" by Mrs. Inez Ocker and Rocky Rapids by Mr. Earl Kelly.

Mr. Hadley then gave a very interesting talk to the group. She listed many of areas of service where Red Cross operates. As well as the well-known free blood transfusion service that Red Cross provides where transfusions are necessary there are many other places in which Red Cross serves. Without charge, the told of a young man of nineteen who suffers from Rheumatoid who has received so far a total of 200 pints of blood from the Red Cross service. Other places in which Red Cross serves are Disaster Relief. In case of fire they give room and board for the homeless family for a period of 48 hours, figuring that within the initial 48 hour period welfare agencies of various kinds have a chance to come to the aid of the sickle in family. They supply tickle-room supplies. The teach handicrafts to those suffering from disabilities. Among other places in which they serve is in their Local Family service, in which they trace missing people on a world-wide basis. Junior Red Cross is another of their services. Perhaps one of the most important services also is the fast-growing Water Safety Service.

Mr. Hadley stressed that never under any circumstances had the Red Cross ever sold their services or supplies. They have been given freely where needed. She stated that perhaps at some time recipients of Red Cross supplies might have turned around and sold it, but the Red Cross itself always supplies its services and goods free of charge.

At the close of the meeting an very excellent film on month to month reconstruction was shown, giving various instances in which this method of water repair may be used.

Like many other Alberta motorists driving in the United States, you have probably wondered about the sign often seen on the outskirts of a town: "Green River Ordinance Strictly Enforced."

As the Rocky Mountain Motorist points out, drivers are confused. Should they slow to 25 miles an hour? Give pedestrians the right of way? Lock their car when parking? Avoid fishing? Or buy Green River at their friendly drug store or corner tavern?

These were happening far in early 1968. The town, as required elsewhere was just getting off on its own, after having been charged from the status of a village to that of a town, and was in the process of setting up its own self-governing machinery. The Pembina Drug Building had recently been completed by Odd, Sanda Construction and the drug store opened for business during February of that year. Valley Vale Dry Cleaners got into operation that same month, and to did Ann's Fashion O. H. Williamson was completing his negotiations with Mr. Milner to purchase the dry goods store on the corner, and Lloyd's Jewellery was in the process of moving to its present location.

Fervent activity was the rule about that time for the Drayton Valley Boy Scout Committee, which was preparing to stage the first Ice Carnival. Lodge-poles pioneer had been started. Fire's Store, operated by Frank "Fire" Leadway, Violet Grove was also a thriving community at that time. Among the many events that were taking place at that time was that of the group who were meeting to formulate plans for the first Socco to be held in this area.

In that stage stepped the Pembina News Advertiser, publishing the first issue February 2nd, 1966. Among the first news stories we carried in that first issue was the news of the Ice Carnival, and the second edition February 9th, carried pictures of the Ice Queen candidates.

There were five, they were Misses Joyce Humphries, Gladys Larsen, Marlene White, Inez Beckley, and Joy Ann Patterson.

The first paper also carried an account of three fugitives that were held by Constable Dr. Proofs. One was into the death of a man that had been killed while working on a rig in the Cynthia district. The second was into the death of a man who was apprehended while he slept in a bank-house, also in the Cynthia district. The third was an incident in the life of an eight-month old child who was found dead in a trailer five just west of Drayton Valley.

Queen Scouts Honored

Drayton Valley's two top scouts were among twenty nine honored when Hon. J. Percy Page, Minister - government presented them with their Queen Scout certificates in a ceremony at Lacombe on Saturday.

Barry Rosenberg and Bill Urchshyn are both grade ten students here and have been in the scouting movement for nearly four years.

Bill's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Bob Urchshyn were pioneer residents in this district. Bill has lived here all his life. Mr. Urchshyn was a boy scout here a number of years ago long before the present company was formed.

Barry, whose parents are Mr. and Mrs. Clayton Rosenberg have lived in Drayton Valley for five years.

The boys were accompanied to Lacombe by their parents, scoutmaster Fred Toolkey, and two flag bearers from their scout troop, John Hight and Dennis Wilber. Mr. Walter Krause a member of the Scout group Committee also accompanied the party to Lacombe.

Over three hundred people attended the ceremony where principal speaker Eric O. Kumm told the scouts that the Queen Scout Badge represented service above calling giving.

It is hoped that more of our scouts will be inspired to work toward their Queen scout badge.

Greetings From The Editor

Six years ago, on February 2nd, 1956, the first issue of the Pembina News Advertiser was printed. We started in a sideback in Killarney Trailer Court and operated from there for a year. In January, 1957, we moved to the old Tucker building, where we are still located. At this time, on our sixth anniversary, we would like to thank one and all, both readers and advertisers for your support during the past years. Personally, we like Drayton Valley. We have lived in many places but have never lived in one we liked better. As this time we would like to extend congratulations to those who started in business here in early 1956. They include Ann's Gardens, Valley Vale, Pembina Tours, H.O. Williamson. Perhaps there are other whom we have overlooked. To the Town of Drayton Valley administration we also extend congratulations on a job well done.

We came here in May, 1954, and so have been here almost eight years and have seen Drayton Valley grow from a hamlet to a town.

Drayton Valley A Modern Town

By: W. G. Johnstone.

February 1943 saw success mark Mohl Oil of Canada Ltd.'s oil drilling attempts. They had struck oil in quantities sufficient to probe further into vast unsettled hinterlands of Alberta's west country. The Pembina Field was born and with it the Town of Drayton Valley. For fifty years the district had been intermittently populated by fire of all kinds, but when a proposed dam was commenced other came in to work on them, the first world war put the damper on that scheme, and then in the depression years of the 1930's farmers from drought torn prairie lands hopefully settled in the green foothills country of the Pembina river. All these peoples lived for varying years upon this vast and valuable lake striving and working for a bare existence all unknowing of the measures beneath their feet.

Then came the search for oil that product that has come to mean so much to our way of civilization testing every nook and cranny of the area in search of signs relative to the black gold for which they looked. Success finally awarded their efforts. One well was drilled and found, two, three, hundreds, thousands and within the space of four years—the moment of 1947 it was known that the Pembina Oil Field was the largest producing oil field in North America.

With the vast quantities of oil to be recovered from underground, all types of services, supplies and companies set up their base of operations in the field—more particularly in the hamlet of Drayton Valley. On seeing the confusion and disorder already apparent in the early stages the Government of Alberta set up legislation to handle this great influx of people and business into an unexpected hamlet. The New Town Act was brought into being whereby the Government would administer and guide the fast growing community in a planned and co-ordinated manner to minimize confusion, disorder and lawlessness.

Until March of 1947 Drayton Valley was a New Town governed by an administrator appointed by the Minister of Municipal Affairs and advised by a local body of ratepayers. This form of administration insured that all laws and regulations necessary for the orderly growth of the community would be enforced. It also provided the means by which money could be raised for the unprecedented expense involved in providing sanitary facilities to the New Town, as well as roads and other communications. Drayton Valley survived these latest birth labors and by the spring of 1948, just a year since becoming a self-administered town, she could boast being the third largest town—population wise, in Alberta with a population of 3004. In the next many years her population climbed to in 1950—3028; in 1960—3821 and finally this past February a census count revealed a population of 3885. So in the spectacular space of eight years from a hamlet of 75 souls Drayton Valley had become a modern and attractive town of nearly 4000.

With the drilling fever nearly at an end and the oil field become stabilized as a producer, it is to be expected that the Town will for a year or so remain as a near stand still to facilitate major consolidations. However, because of its favorable location in the scheme of things—at the crossroads between Edmonton and Banff and Jasper and Calgary it is to be foreseen that Drayton Valley will become the crossroads of the Alberta middle west: the halfway house between industry and recreation. With cooperation and suitable provision on the part of local and provincial bodies this should grow into an ever expanding community serving the oil fields, the agricultural lands, the game and fish playgrounds to the west, and the transients from the north-east, the north west, the south west and the south east.

The new wealth coming into being with the cultivation of the virgin soil around and about the Town will in time prove to be the basis of a settled economy. Even now the leaders of the community are seeing the growing interdependence of the farms and the towns people. A varied economy is necessary for any progressive community and Drayton Valley must not be reticent in keeping this fact. If it wants to be the hub of a growing wheel of fortune Drayton Valley must provide the direction and the impetus to the fast-spoken and growing rim. It has a great responsibility to the growing district and if past performance indicates anything we can look forward to a fine progressive future.

Town Administration

The early development of Drayton Valley, after the start of the oil boom in late 1935 and early 1944 came under the jurisdiction of the Town Planning Branch of the Department of Municipal Affairs, the first town in Alberta to come under that newly organized branch of the provincial government. Several men from the Department of Municipal Affairs were on hand in the initial planning stages of the town, and among these was Jimmy Gre, who acted in the capacity of Development Officer. After the initial phase of development

Mr. Adrian Meier and Mr. Harry Knight. In February, 1947 Order in Council No. 1932 approved the establishment of the Town of Drayton Valley, and the following Council was elected: Mayor, R. B. Clarke, 3 year term councillor, H. Pickup and H. Knight, two year councillors, Dave Chow and Don McKenzie, and one year councillors, H. O. Williamson and John Getzinger. At the end of their one year term office

Williamson and Getzinger were replaced by Frank Bowditch and Karl Wahl. Vic Halwa later replaced Chow. Clarke served as mayor about a year and then transferred to the city town of Swan Hills, and Deputy Mayor H. Pickup took his place until the end of the term when Adrian Meier was elected to the office. In 1949 Adrian Meier took over

Aerial view of Drayton Valley, fall, 1944

The first Advisory Council consisted of Town Administrator Bill Meier, Secretary-Treasurer T. R. Cummings, Mr. Pickup, Don McKenzie, Mr. John McKenzie, Mr. Carl Sand and as mayor, Mr. Zolner replaced Mr. Halwa on the council. Don McKenzie was re-elected and Mr. Pickup became a councillor. The following year, 1951, Mr. Earl Thompson replaced Mr. Denner.

As at February, 1949 the panel of the Council is as follows: Mayor, A. Meier, Deputy Mayor, Don McKenzie, Councillor, Mr. K. Wahl, Mr. E. Zolner, Mr. C. D. Fehr and Mr. J. Ryan, and Mr. R. Thompson.

When the village was declared a Town secretary-treasurer T. R. Cummings was put in as Town Manager, Mr. E. Henshaw came to take over the duties as secretary-treasurer, after about four months he resigned and Mr. William Johansson came from his position as secretary-treasurer for the Town of Wainwright and assumed the duties of secretary-treasurer for this fast-growing town, a position which he still holds.

A Model Town Is Draughted

By: Art Playford.
Taken from February 10th., 1945 issue of the Drayton Valley Tribune of which A. Playford was local editor.

One year ago, the present plan and pattern of the Town of Drayton Valley was being established on the draughting boards in the office of the Department of Municipal Affairs, of which the Hon. G. E. Gurnea was the head at that time.

Drayton Valley was to be established as a well-planned, modern town and plans were laid accordingly. In the months that followed, much work was done by the Department of Municipal Affairs and, it must be admitted, quite a lot of abuse was heaped on them from those who wished to take short-cuts in the building of the town.

Short-cuts are sometimes expedient for the moment, but in the long run they do not pay. The pattern which is taking shape one year later would indicate that these planners wrought well.

Two paths, comprising about 44 acres, will be located in residential areas. In addition there is to be a path of about two acres on the creek bank at the edge of town. A path strip 50 feet wide will border the new highway, to serve as a buffer between it and the town. To the original five acres of school property, three additional acres have been added. Three and one-half acres are allocated for government buildings and off-street parking.

Just one block west of the present location of the Administration Building, two acres have been reserved for a hospital site.

Along the present highway, just north of the B.A. station, three acres have been reserved for Public Works. At a cost of about $25,000, 230 miles of new streets have been graded and gravelled. The initial surveying and plotting of the townsite and streets was a job of colossal proportions.

The sewer and utility program serviced 35 residential and 25 commercial lots, and will cost about $102,000 when completed. But it is said that plans call for a start to be made on another phase of the water and sewer utility program, equally as large as the first, in the near future. Of the figures of $102,000 it is estimated that about $50,000 has thus far been paid into the fund in the form of prepaid utilities.

In addition, the Department of Municipal Affairs has spent about $15,000 of dollars on their present administration office and in building the fire hall to house the fire truck which cost about $2,000 more. Along with this, the department has issued the permits for well over one million dollars worth of new construction in the town of Drayton Valley, and perhaps about $100,000 worth of new buildings in the Violet Grove area, and has inspected the structures.

The town of Drayton Valley will no doubt be administering its own affairs by the time the next anniversary issue of the paper is printed next year, but whoever the man may be that is selected to carry on this task, they will find that a stable, well-planned foundation has been laid for them.

At no time in the history of the establishment of new communities has it happened under like this. Perhaps other communities yet to be established on this north American continent, as well as elsewhere, will look to this original model of a town, planned from its very inception, that other communities may be so patterned.

Drayton Valley The Hub

From the Pembina News Advertiser, Feb. 2, 1966 issue.
With this issue the Pembina News Advertiser gets underway. We plan to cover the events of this newest and biggest oilfield, yet to be discovered and to chronicle the happenings in its center, the Town of Drayton Valley.

When we think of this area we commonly think of it now in terms of oil and it is certain that oil does now and will always come large in economy of the district, but this area was slated for a part in that expansion in the natural course of the development of its other great natural reserve, which is very good land especially suited for all types of farming.

The area has seen much lumbering activity in the past and will see more, as there is still many good stands of timber in the existing regions. Small saw-mill and lumbering operations are carried on in addition to the other activities. They all help to add to the value of the "back-country" upon which every community relies for a stable economy.

foods from other lands. Foreign foods add variety without expense on your coast of small pieces of economical cuts of meat. The seasonings are what make them distinctive.

- 1 medium onion, minced
- 2 apples, peeled and sliced
- 1 tbsp. Sugar
- 1 tsp. Curry powder
- 1 quart liquid (see note)
- 8 slices garlic
- 1/4 tsp. ginger
- 4 cups minced fresh chutney, chicken or beef, optional

METHOD

- Heat the oil and add onions and apples. Cover and cook until clear.
- Add flour and curry powder; stir until smooth.
- Slowly stir in liquid.
- For extra garlic, grate pieces and add juice to sauce. Heat and add more curry if desired. Add ginger.
- Cover and cook on very low heat for 1 hour, stirring occasionally, strain if desired.
- Add cooked meat, chicken, or seafood and cook just long enough to heat through.

NOTE: Liquid may be chicken or beef broth, bouillon, or milk. For true Hawaiian Curry, part of liquid should be coconut milk. Curry is served with rice.

HOW TO MAKE COCONUT MILK

Coconut milk as used in Hawaii is extracted from grated coconut and should not be confused with the watery liquid found in a mature coconut. Coconut milk is easily made by either of the following methods:
(1) Fresh coconuts: Peel 2 cups milk over 4 cups freshly grated coconut. Let stand 24 hours, stirring occasionally. Strain through a double thickness of cheese cloth, pressing hard to remove all liquid.
(2) Prepared coconut: Peel 2 cups milk over 1 can or package of coconut. Shred in a ball, remove from heat and let stand 24 hours stirring occasionally. Strain through a double thickness of cheese cloth, pressing hard to remove all liquid.

THIS IS THAT

For best results use pure coconut oil or the coconut being used.

It cannot be stressed too strongly that roads are of prime importance to this area.

There is no railroad serving it, as most other districts have, and given good roads, trucking can adequately take care of the moving of all the goods necessary for trade and commerce with other communities, and while they are doing that the trucking industry is also contributing to the local economy to a far greater extent than railroads ever can. But we must have good roads. The area needs not only the bridge across the Pembina River, which is slated for construction this summer but it also vitally needs a bridge across the Saskatchewan.

He had barely paid off his mortgage on the house when he was mortgaged again to buy a car, and the long after-charge, his banker hesitated and said, "I do make this new loan how you buy gas for the car?"

"It seems to me," the man replied cryptically, "that a fellow who owns a large house, a car and garage should be able to get credit for gas."

The meeting was adjourned with the theme prayer.

BOYSCOUTS DONATES TROPHIES

The beautiful Rotary International Trophy will be for giving this week. The award emblematic of annual supremacy in international basketball competition was first presented last year and in the contest and decided against the D.V.A.A. Rotarians. The Black and Gold hockey boys are in line to compete for the prize again this season by virtue of their two decisive victories over the D.V. Champs last week. Their opponents will be the D.V.A.A. Elks who put the D.V. Hotel Oilers out of the running with a pair of victories. Those same two teams played off for the trophy last year in a thrilling series in which three of the four games required to decide the issue went into overtime. In fact, during the past two seasons, this inter-league has produced some of the most interesting, thrilling and competitive hockey that we have witnessed at any level of puck-chucking competition.

In addition to the big trophy the local hockey club will be giving four individual trophies this year. Any member of the four teams competing in the Bantam league will be eligible for those awards. The trophies will be presented to the league's most sportsmanlike player, the most valuable player, the highest scorer over the season's play, and the goalie with the fewest goals against him during competition.

The winners will be picked by the individual team coaches within the league and the trophies will be presented to the deserving competitors by Rotary President Ed Mitchell at a later date.

PEE WE ZONE TOURNAMENT

Here and there across the province different communities and organizations registered Mike Hockey teams with the A.A.A. With the understanding that the little fellows would be competing in Provincial Playdowns. Somewhere along the line, however, the big has changed their minds and in the contest and decided against the D.V.A.A. Rotarians. The Black and Gold hockey boys are in line to compete for the prize again this season by virtue of their two decisive victories over the D.V. Champs last week. Their opponents will be the D.V.A.A. Elks who put the D.V. Hotel Oilers out of the running with a pair of victories. Those same two teams played off for the trophy last year in a thrilling series in which three of the four games required to decide the issue went into overtime. In fact, during the past two seasons, this inter-league has produced some of the most interesting, thrilling and competitive hockey that we have witnessed at any level of puck-chucking competition.

On our case we decided to do something about it. We felt that the little fellows should have some sort of special competition to replace the cancelled playdowns and climax their hockey season. Clayton Rosenberg, Stan Kuchel and myself decided something equivalent to a zone playoff. We contacted those people interested in Mike hockey in other centers and had starting in Jasper Place, then Inverness, then to a flying start and had 3-0 at the end of the first twenty minutes of play on two goals by Wayne Tough and a single by Stan Kuchel. However, the Whitecourt team were not to be taken so lightly and they managed to even the score with a goal during the second and third periods. Stan Kuchel made it 3-1 with a goal early in the third period. The game was a terrific battle and the Whitecourt team scored late but tied it up. In the third, however, Stan Kuchel scored late in the game to put it 4-1 for the D.V. squad.

COMETS DROP OUT

The D.V.A.A. Comets the local hockey team have been dropped out of the Bantam league championship run into some pretty tough going last weekend and dropped from the competition. The Comets tied up with the Rebels in a two game total point series and came out on the wrong side of a 12-1 total score. Edson took the openers Friday night in Drayton Valley the Rebels finished out with 12 wins one tie and one defeat. One thing for sure that sixteen game unbeaten streak will be in the local record books for a long time.

Calmer Friday evening and went down 10-4 here Sunday in a wide open game against Whitecourt. The Klippers had the edge in life. Calmer game but once again the home team seemed to capitalize more on the breaks in carry away a close game. In Sunday's game we saw the local Midgets at full strength for the first time this season with Gerald McConville and Dave Joyce in the lineup. Dave really made his presence felt by scoring three times and assisting on two others markers. The other local scorers were Kenny Sichen with two and Lorne Huska. The Valley team put up a real battle all the way until the blisters called the contest with three unanswered goals. The locals will be at Whitecourt next week to repay the visit.

The selective council in control of the affairs of the council consisted of five members, a president, a secretary-treasurer and three directors. George Laidlaw was elected as Council President, the directors are: J.L. Bryant, Mrs. Ross O'Carroll and J.W. Mueller to be named later, while your truly will act as secretary-measurer for the day-to-day running of the organization. Some eighteen local organizations, church groups, lodges, clubs and companies have contributed financially to form the Council. This organization will operate under the Edmonton Film Federation and I will have a supply of some thirty National Film Board films on hand at all times.

THOUGHT GEMS

They say: "Grow old gracefully." A splendid idea, but I wish many other important things in life this much easier said than done. However, for their own good, as well as for the happiness of others, I wish that all those people should start learning how to grow old. There is no reason of life for which preparation is more necessary. There is no preparation that is more necessary.

EVERY PHASE OF LIFE IS A MAKING

ready for the next phase, just as what we learn during childhood determines the success or failure of our adulthood, so does our preparation in middle life decide the nature of our old age.

This is a picture of Drayton Valley's first cafe at the beginning of the oil boom. This picture appeared in several national magazines, both U.S. and Canadian. It will be noticed that the car standing in front has an Oklahoma license. This picture was taken in 1935.

Pioneer doctor in the boom town was Dr. Brooks, who came here in early 1934. One skullhead constituted his office, the other his home. The district had great need for a doctor, with many rigs drilling, and much field construction work going on, with many resultant injuries and accidents. Even at that early date, also, Drayton Valley showed itself to be a booming birthplace and many were the maternity calls made under the most primitive conditions. Roads, too, were atrocious, or practically non-existent.

In Plebiscite #2 you, again as a resident of the Town of Drayton Valley and qualified as such to vote as an ordinary Elector, will be asked to signify by marking your ballot with an "X" either "for" or "against" the By-law authorizing the Town Council to expend the Provincial Recreation Grant, which is amount to approximately $35,280.00, for the construction of a Swimming Pool and Dressing Room. 7 MARCH 1962 VOTING ON BY-LAW NO. 239 ALLOTTING TO THE COMMUNITY OF A SWIMMING POOL AND DRESSING ROOMS, AND OF THE TOWN OF DRAYTON VALLEY THIS 7 MARCH 1962	FOR THE BY-LAW
	AGAINST THE BY-LAW

THIS BALLOT TO BE MARKED BY THE RATEPAYERS.

In Plebiscite #3 the Ratepayers of the Town of Drayton Valley - that is those people who own property and are on the Assessment Roll and Tax Roll of the Town, will be asked to mark a ballot with an "X" either "for" or "against" the By-law to authorize Council to raise money in the amount of $20,000.00 through debenture sale for the cost of construction of that part of the Swimming Pool and Dressing Room that cannot be financed by the other means. It is again emphasized that all rate payers have this responsibility to fulfill - to make their ballot either "for" or "against" such legislation.

In summary, whether you are an ordinary Elector and may only vote on Plebiscites #1 or #2 or whether you are a Ratepayer and may vote all ballots, it is your duty to signify in the only way possible what your wishes on the questions are - by marking the ballots you are eligible to mark in the way you want to mark them.

Let us see you out on the 7th, March, 1962 at the Town Council Chambers for these three vital decisions.

D.V. Highlights

By: Edith Daby

Very much enjoyed a visit with Mrs. Cecil Wall in Edmonton recently. Mrs. Wall looks well, it appears in the best of spirits, and sent her best regards to all her friends in Drayton Valley.

Mrs. David Glas, who it will be remembered, set such an enviable record when teaching Grade nine here, is back in the classroom. Mrs. Glas is teaching grade nine in a city school.

Kenneth Maden is working with First Rig in Swan Hills this winter. He spent a week and a half near the first of the month.

It is with regret that the Rev. and Mrs. Whiff's many friends have learned that this popular couple will be leaving at the end of June. They are to make their home in Camrose.

Mr. Dale Valenholm, now working out of Whitecourt, has a few days off and is visiting his family.

Our deepest sympathy is extended to Mr. and Mrs. Abbott whose month and a half old baby passed on this week.

Miss Kathleen Daughton will soon complete her hair dressing course and may come to work in Drayton Valley. We have it from a reliable source that wedding bells will ring for Kathleen in this town.

Saw Mrs. Jack Frank beaming happily as she carried her newly acquired oil painting home on Tuesday evening. The painting had been done by Mrs. Edward

Swimming Pool Costs

In view of the considerable interest generated by the swimming pool proposal, it has been suggested that anyone given the opportunity to help the town in this project should be given the opportunity to see the complete plan and to see the existing skating rink dressing rooms in the pool project. It is suggested that anyone who is interested in the pool project should call on the town clerk at 709-0000, or on the pool project committee at 709-0000.

Pool and additional bath house as proposed	$ 70,000.
Extra allowance for connecting sewer and water	$ 5,000.
other utilities, landscaping etc.	$ 7,000.
Facilities already existing	$ 2,000.
TOTAL COST	$82,000.

FINANCING:
(Facilities already existing)	$7,000.
Provincial Swimming Pool Grant	$7,000.
Provincial Recreation Grant	$35,280.
Anticipated other Municipal Grants	$ 2,720.
Total Grants and existing facilities	$52,000.
Balance to be provided by the Town, by debentures	$30,000.
	$82,000.

Note that the Town will be asked for $30,000 of the total to contribute to the swimming pool. It is proposed to repay the amount of this debt over 20 years, which will result in a total annual cost of $2,710.54 per year.

For some years the club featured largely in the lives of the young folks.

A wedding of interest is to be solemnized here on March 10th when Miss Peggy Fry, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Truman Fry and Mr. Ronald Boyd will be married. Both young people are with the air force. Mr. Boyd is stationed in Germany at present and Miss Fry is at St. Margaret's, New Brunswick.

The W.A. of the Anglican Church invite you to attend their annual Pancake and White party to be held in the parish hall on March 8th. Supper will be served from 5:30 to 7:30.

Our editor has invited me to reminisce a bit about the pool use in this anniversary issue. My first thought was of those hardy souls who provided our transportation, hauled our produce out, and our groceries in, and ran the mail route. Such names as Deane, Morrow and Combs come immediately to mind.

Of these three Lloyd Combs, of Rocky Rapids, is still operating. He began the once a week mail service in 1924 with horses from Belleville to Drayton Valley taking two days for the round trip.

In 1929 Mr. Combs bought his first truck. On certain days he hauled livestock and on others cream. On his return trip he brought groceries for his father's store.

In spite of one bad accident when he fell from the top of his truck while rearranging his load Mr. Combs still does some trucking although not on a regular run.

In 1934 Jensen Brothers, of Moose Lake started with one truck. Ennis did the driving and Mr. Jensen did the business. Remember being in Edmonton about that time and seeing Mr. Jensen standing at a sewing thread counter with a scrap of dress material in his hand. He was marching there for some home wife on his route.

The Jensen Brothers Trucking Service has greatly expanded in the last twenty eight years but one thing has not changed. One still receives pleasant and efficient service.

When Billy Claess, of Belleville, retired after many years of service as mail courier from Belleville to Drayton Valley the neighbors here bought him a honours air chair. Very much he deserved that mail token of our appreciation.

Mr. LeRoy Herndon with Mrs. Percy Wood headed the sewing club. Young matrons are now making practical use of the lessons taught by these two ladies.

The 4th grain club was under the leadership of Mrs. Irene Herndon, now Mrs. Art Forrester and Mrs. William Robinson, was the provincial champion for the grain club and there were speeches, presentations, and photographs from the Edmonton fair.

Mr. Purman, now Deputy Minister of Agriculture was guest speaker.

Mr. Campbell was district agriculturist at that time.

By the way do you remember the fun we used to have when we piled into the back of a truck and went to Stony Plain to the annual track meet? Brought back our share of ribbons, too, didn't we?

B.P.O. ELKS MEETING

Drayton Valley Elks Lodge No. 281 held its regular monthly meeting on February 19th, at 8 p.m. The ritualistic drill of the Elks Lodge No. 281 opened the Lodge on the 7 and 9 p.m. on Thurs days.

Guests from Belleville included Ennis, Buley Jack Thompson, Paul Exelrod, Sister Leo Jensen, Chaplain Jack Jensen, and Reginald Fred Chertanog.

During their business meeting the Elks agreed to allow the Drayton Valley Town Band to use the Elks Hall for band practice between 7 and 9 p.m. on Thurs days.

He was getting fresh, so she drove back on the main road and stopped.

"You'll have to get out here."

"Not, darling," he pleaded. "What's left?"

"Can't you read the sign? It says 'Valley With Legs Not Allowed On This Road'."

ENGINEERS VISIT PEMBINA FIELD

KEEP FIT CLASSES

The Girls Gym Club Keep Fit Classes under the direction of Mrs. A. Lonsuewburgh held a parents meeting at the Scout Hall on Saturday, February 17. This was not a display but a regular lesson to that parents could see what the girls learn in their Physical Training Classes.

First to go through their routine were the youngest girls, six and seven year olds who are trained by Betty Meier. There are twenty members in this group. Next came Mrs. Lonsuewburgh's two groups, 22 girls aged 8 and 9 years, and 33 in the senior group, ten years and over. These popular classes were started last year by Mrs. Lonsuewburgh and ran from November to June. This year the D.V. Athletic Association sponsored the group and classes started in September and will run till June. The girls wear an attractive green outfit, purchased at a reasonable price, which is both smart and practical. They are now ready to start work connected with this display, commencing making and ticket selling in particular, and the mothers of the girls will be called on for help in this respect. There are now fifteen Post Offices with "Staff" names in the Edmonton Postal District which extends from near Lacombe in the south to the Arctic and from the Saskatchewan to British Columbia borders. "Originally known as the "Power House" Post Office when established June 15, 1913, the retirement and post office on May 1, 1920 were resumed Drayton Valley after a village in Hampshire, England from which the wife of Postmaster, W.J. Drake came. Records of annual postage sales for the period 1913 to 1918 are not available however, sales for the year 1919 amounted to $43.35. Until 1923, Power House later Drayton Valley, were classified by the Post Office as "non-accounting" or first range post offices. In 1923, Drayton Valley received its first up-grading to "accounting" post office status. Postage sales for 1923 totalled $231.30. Although revenue gradually increased during the years from 1923 through 1941 (sales $364.43) to 1941 (sales $572.17) this period was uneventful for Drayton Valley. The years 1922 and 1923 when sales decreased from the 1921 high showed less promise of a bright future. The opening of the Pembina oil field in 1923-24 bringing with it a tremendous influx of new residents - all potential postal patrons - saw the Drayton Valley Post Office related to "Semi-Staff" status and, working all out. The Post Office and Drayton Valley have grown together since, as may be verified when 1941 postage sales of $30,147.13 are mentioned. Many long time residents of the area when recalling the past.

Licenses Go On Sale

Japanese engineers visited Drayton Valley officials last week as part of a tour directed by Fred J. Britton of Canadian Reclaim.

T. Tahel, Chief of the Research Engineering section, in the production department; and N. Ural, Chief of the Production Section of the Kashiwazaki Mining Office, both of the Teikoku Oil Co. Ltd., were accompanied by Red Ummons of Western Transmission Co. Ltd., of Vancouver, who acted as their interpreter, and by Mr. Britton.

Citizens here were interested to learn that Japan has some three thousand wells in the northern section of the country which are very low producers. Only three thousand barrels of oil are recovered daily, along with reasonable quantities of gas and a great deal of water. Since this type of production poses many problems, Canadian methods are being studied. The tour included visits to Gollad Ltd., First Plant.

The visitors were guests at lunch of Gollad and Mobil Oil personnel. Following lunch Mobil Oil field installations were visited.

Mrs. Roberts Stred, of the Treasury Branch bank, in Drayton Valley, is holding plates No. 12 0001, which will be the first plates of the series to be issued by the Treasury Branch on March 1st, when the license plates go on sale. The Treasury Branch will issue license plates this year; they will handle all types of plates and licenses. Before applying for their plates customers are requested to have their renewal applications. The bank points out, also, that care should be taken not to scratch or mark on the outside of the envelope as they are carbon copies inside. Applicants are also requested to see that the vehicle they wish to register is the one they presently own.

This year, as in the past, no special reservations will be made for plate numbers. The plates will be issued extraneously as the applications come in.

Hours for license sales will be from 9:00 a.m. till 5:00 p.m. Monday through Thursday, with an added hour of 9:00 a.m. to 6:00 p.m. on Friday, and closed all day Saturday.

The plates this year are green background with white numerals. As usual they were made by inmates of Fort Saskatchewan prison. The local license issue will start at 12 0001 and go up as high as needed to supply the area with licenses.

Drayton Valley Post Office

Reflecting the growth of Drayton Valley and surrounding area, the Drayton Valley Post Office was up-graded to "Staff" Grade 9 status effective January 1st, 1932. "Staff" is the highest Post Office grouping in the Canadian Postal Service.

There are now fifteen Post Offices with "Staff" names in the Edmonton Postal District which extends from near Lacombe in the south to the Arctic and from the Saskatchewan to British Columbia borders.
